CHAIR'S MESSAGE

Dear members,

I am extremely happy to present our Annual Report for 2017-2018. While we await the announcement of Commonwealth Funding allocations and the State Funding guidelines, the FCAN Board have spent the last twelve months continuing to campaign and advocate on behalf of members and financially vulnerable people.

The FCAN Board has acted on our priority of raising the profile of financial counselling through meeting with politicians and industry advocates, media interviews, news article submissions, 'Sharkwatch' and social media. The Board have continued to look at how to support members to uphold professional standards and position FCAN as the peak body for financial counselling in this state.

Some of our initiatives and achievements over the last twelve months have been:

- Attending NCOSS conferences in July to September throughout NSW with the result that the NCOSS 2018 pre-budget submission included the recommendation to increase funding to the sector.
- Campaigning State and Federal Politicians to raise awareness of the need for on-going funding for financial counselling.
- FCAN Chair's campaign to raise awareness of the perils of instant Cash N Go machines featured in numerous media and articles nationally.
- Attending the second National Day of Action in Canberra. FCAN initially attended the first National Day of Action in March 2017 to encourage Federal Politicians to legislate the recommendations from the SACC Review. The second National Day of Action was to reiterate the urgent need to legislate the recommendations and to assist CHOICE with the FIX the Banks campaign.
- Regular meetings and forums with hardship teams.
- Sourcing pro-bono support through Justice Connect and with the expert assistance of Baker McKenzie, FCAN's PBI Status with the ACNC was approved and Tax and DGR concessions granted by the ATO.
- Publishing four online editions of 'Sharkwatch' and circulating the publication to all NSW members and national subscribers.

Our other achievements throughout the year include:

- The 2017 FCAN Conference in Port Macquarie had a record number of delegates, thanks to a very hard working committee who provided a high quality program.
- The ATSI training day at the Birpai Local Aboriginal Land Council was inspirational, thanks to the wonderful work of the ATSI Connection.
- Working with Diploma providers to increase training options for members and new entrants into the industry.
- Maintaining a surplus for the year.
- Funding additional scholarships to assist members and students studying the Diploma in Financial Counselling.
- Introducing regional General Meetings
- Growing the number of regional and metropolitan network groups.
- Regular meetings and professional development held in the Hunter, Mid North Coast, Lismore, Central West, Southern NSW, Western Sydney and Sydney.
- Relocating offices to Castlereagh Street Sydney and creating a meeting/ training room

On that note I thank the FCAN staff for their efforts during the relocation and renovation and all of the additional legal, contractual, financial, IT, packing and unpacking work that goes along with this. They have done a great job throughout the year producing regular newsletters and timely updates, increasing professional development opportunities, providing guidance and support to our members and secretariat services to the Board.

On behalf of the Board and members I extend our thanks and appreciation to our outgoing Directors Therese Slan and Sandy Sallmayer, both of whom have worked on FCAN committees and represented the interests of members and people in financial hardship. While we farewell Therese and Sandy I ask you to join me in welcoming our incoming Directors Vanessa Emery and Jennifer Higgins.

Regards,

Graham R. Smith
